

Community Research Fellows Training Virtually

BECOME A COMMUNITY RESEARCH FELLOW!

Offering Virtually for the First Time.

Learn about community research:

Get hands-on experience

Partner with researchers to make a difference

FREE 12-week training program

BENEFITS

Gain skills and tools to help improve the health of your community

Meet leaders and researchers with similar interest in improving the health of Mississippians

Play a role in making sure community research projects are created to positively impact your community

ELIGIBILITY

At least 18 years old

Currently live or work in Hancock, Harrison, or Jackson counties

Have an interest in improving minority health, public health research, or reducing health disparities

Will commit to 2 online hours (6:00 – 8:00 pm), once a week, for 12 weeks beginning May 5, 2020.

For more information contact:

Shakeizia "Kezi" Jones, CHES, MPH Program Manager
Gulf Coast Healthy Communities Collaborative and Healthy Families Mothers & Babies Initiative
Gulf Coast Community Design Studio
Mississippi State University
T:228-436-4661

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE April 10, 2020 by 5:00pm

Download applications at:

<https://sheahealth.org/community-research-fellows-training/>

SCAN ME

Drop off or Mail to:

Attn: Shakeizia "Kezi" Jones
Gulf Coast Community Design Studio
Mississippi State University
769 Howard Avenue
Biloxi, MS 39530

